

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to air this politically biased
film, "Stolen Honor...", about
Senator John Kerry,
is wrong! In this time of intense
division of American voters, there is simply no excuse for allowing the use of public airwaves or cable networks to spread biased
propaganda,
especially under the guise of journalism.
If Sinclair does air
this controversial
film, it should be
as a paid advertisement...or...Sinclair should give equal time to air the documentaries "Going Upriver" or
"Fahrenheit 9/11" in order to balance out
the fairness in broadcasting in general.

Please gather your Commission members
at once and stop
this vulgar abuse of the American
television viewers.

There can be no
doubt that this film is being used as a political weapon and has no "newsworthy"
value whatsoever.
If people want to see it, they should have to go to a theatre and buy a ticket, just like we did when "Going Upriver" and
"Fahrenheit 9/11"
were released.

Again, this is akin to a national emergency and your immediate action is requested. Stop Sinclair from showing this film or revoke their licenses at once.

Thank you for your urgent attention to this matter.
Yours very truly,

Dub Campbell
